

Synthesis of the searches

The entrance in kindergarten starts two or three years at month of September.

The children develop there their basic faculties, perfect their language and begin to discover the world of writing, the numbers and other learning areas. Mixed, free if she is public, elementary school welcomes children from 6 to 11 years.

The college welcomes all Students at the stake of primary school without passing exam. The lessons are structured disciplines: French, mathematics, history, geography, civics education, life sciences and earth, technology, visual arts, music education, physical education and sports, physics and chemistry. The targets are set by national programs.

After college, students continue their education in general and technical education high school or at a vocational college. This allows acquiring a professional qualification in order to pursue studies or to integrate into the workforce. The gateways between, on the one hand, vocational education and general education and technology and secondly, between the cap and professional bac are facilitated. The Vocational Qualification provides access to trades worker or employee is to integrate qualified and professional life directly. SEN MAY Still Making Two in the four domains in (Health and Social Careers, conduct and Services in road, business catering and the hotel industry, optical spectacles). In vocational school, preparing the Patent of Professional Studies Is integrated to the course in three years professional baccalaureate. The general Baccalaureate and technological Bachelor are organized in series (economic and social (ES), literary (L) and scientific (S) for High School, STG, STI, STL, STSS, STAV, TMD and hotels for technological bac. Each series is organized around a coherent core of dominant disciplines. Prepared in 3 years, professional baccalaureate certifies the ability to carry out highly qualified employment.